Joint Declaration Take Away Points

“Reflection on the depth and the authenticity of our existing bonds” on the occasion of the 50th Anniversary of the meeting between Pope Paul VI and Ecumenical Patriarch Athenagoras

Theological dialogue must seek the fullness of faith rather than the common denominator for compromise.

Importance of working together to build “a just and humane society in which no-one feels excluded or emarginated.”

A call to repentance for the mistreatment of our planet. All are called to live lives of moderation, generosity, and less greed.

Christians are called to set aside “indifference and mutual ignorance” and “promote an authentic dialogue” with those of other religions.

Concern for the Christians of the Middle East, promoting “dialogue, pardon, and reconciliation” rather than arms as the only way to peace.

“We call upon all Christians, together with believers of every religious tradition and all people of good will, to recognize the urgency of the hour that compels us to seek the reconciliation and unity of the human family, while fully respecting legitimate differences, for the good of all humanity and of future generations.”
